

DAVID T. ULLMANN

DAVID T. ULLMANN received his LL.B. from Osgoode Hall Law School. He was called to the Bar of Ontario in 1999. He was the winner of the national Gordon Henderson prize in copyright law, 1998 for his paper entitled "Liability Issues in Supplying Musical Content to the Internet Community". David is a past employee of each of the Canadian Musical Reproduction Agency, CANCOPY and SOCAN. He was also involved with the development of an online system to track the use of copyright on the Internet, for the CULTECH

Research Centre at York University. David is an associate at Minden Gross Grafstein & Greenstein LLP. David is past faculty at the Harris Institute for the Arts, where he taught courses on copyright, publishing and music industry agreements. His clients include internet solution providers and internet service providers as well as members of the film and music industry community. His practice includes a focus on intellectual property issues related to the Internet. He has appeared as a commentator on the CBC News at Six and CBC Newsworld with respect to the Napster issue. David also practices extensively with respect to insolvency and insolvent technology companies. He has appeared several times on ROBTV as an expert in insolvency matters. David has spoken and many national level conferences on issues related to intellectual property, technology and the Internet.

David T. Ullmann
Minden Gross Grafstein & Greenstein LLP
Barristers & Solicitors
111 Richmond Street West, Suite 700
Toronto, ON M5H 2H5
Phone: (416) 369-4148
Fax: (416) 864-9223
Email: dullmann@mggg.com
Website: <http://www.mggg.com>
MERITAS LAW FIRMS WORLDWIDE